STAT

I want to express to you my sincere appreciation for your exceptional service to this Agency during 1954. One of the most gratifying elements of my job is finding such outstanding and busy people as yourself who are willing to help in building up the competence of this Agency.

If some special situation arises in the future, I trust you will permit me to call upon you again.

All best wishes to you both for the future.

Faithfully,

Allen W. Dulles
Director
